

Announcements for the Week of October 13th

THIS WEDNESDAY OCT. 16 AT 7PM

Enjoy an evening of wisdom and reflection with Martha Campbell, Following the Mystic Path: A Spirituality for the Baptized -- What is a Mystic? Martha currently is the Director of Lay Leadership programs at the Jesuit Retreat House in Parma. Her background includes leading retreats and workshops focusing on the mystics and the contemplative tradition at Bon Secours Spiritual Center and the Shalem Institute; she co-developed and coordinated a nine part series focusing on woman mystics while a member of the Indianapolis Carmelite Monastery; she co-developed and taught a graduate course, The Psychology of Mysticism at Boston University's School of Theology.

We will start that evening with a pot luck supper in St. Malachi Hall (Behind the Church at W. 25th & Detroit Aves.) at 6pm. All are invited! Bring a friend! "The Christian of the future will be a mystic or will not exist at all" (Karl Rahner, SJ, Theol. Invent. XX, 149).

Watch for more in this evening series: St. Francis of Assisi & St. Clare of Assisi; St. Teresa of Avila & St. John of the Cross; St. Francis de Sales & St. Jane de Chantal.

EVERYDAY PROPHETS — OCTOBER 15

On Tuesday, Oct. 15, Sr. Martha Owen, OSU, longtime resident at St. Malachi Convent; former member of the Cleveland Diocesan Mission Team in El Salvador; currently, Curriculum Coordinator for Urban Community School will speak at 12:30 in the hall. Everyday Prophets is a lunchtime program to celebrate the work & dedication of those in our community who serve others. Speakers also share stories of their own life's journey. Bring a lunch (beverage & dessert are provided) and enjoy the stories, fellowship, and inspiration shared.
