What is a Mystic?

Wednesday Oct. 16, 7pm

Enjoy an evening of wisdom and reflection with Martha Campbell

Martha is the Director of Lay Leadership programs at the Jesuit Retreat House. Her background includes

- Having led retreats and workshops focusing on the mystics and the contemplative tradition at Bon Secours Spiritual Center and the Shalem Institute;
- Co-developed and coordinated a nine part series focusing on woman mystics while a member of the Indianapolis Carmelite Monastery;
- Co-developed and taught a graduate course, The Psychology of Mysticism at Boston University's School of Theology.

Join us for a Pot Luck Supper in St.
Malachi Hall at 6pm

(Behind the Church at W. 25th & Detroit Aves.)

All are invited! Bring a friend!

Watch for more in this evening series this year:

- St. Francis of Assisi & St. Clare of Assisi;
- St. Teresa of Avila & St. John of the Cross;
- St. Francis de Sales & St. Jane de Chantal.

"The Christian of the future will be a mystic or will not exist at all"
(Karl Rahner, SJ, Theol. Invent. XX, 149)
