PEACE PRAYER OF ST. FRANCIS

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace. Where there is hatred let me sow love. Where there is injury - pardon. Where there is doubt – faith. Where there is despair – hope. Where there is darkness – light. Where there is sadness – joy. O Divine Master grant that I may seek not so much to be consoled as to console. To be understood as to understand. To be loved as to love. For it is in giving that we receive, pardoning that we are pardoned, and dying that we are born to eternal life.

FATHER MANNING’S COLUMN

When I was a child, the three Sunday’s before Lent were the 70th, 60th, and 50th day before Easter (septuagesima, sexagesima and quinquagesima Sunday’s). Even though it might be the Christmas season, the priest wore purple vestments and preached about the coming of lent. This Sunday is the sixtieth day before Easter. And the question needs to be asked now. “What are you doing for Lent”?

GOD’S HEALING HANDS

CONGRATULATIONS:

Benedictine Second Semester Honor Roll: Oscar Zvomuya – Cum Laude...Great Job!

ZINGER:

-Middle age is when it takes longer to rest than to get tired.
-Balanced diet: a cookie in each hand.
-Ballerinas are always on their toes. Why don’t they just hire taller ballerinas?
